- Winning a prize is subject to the observance of these Rules. Prizes will not be granted if the Organiser or Co-organiser finds out or has a substantiated suspicion of any fraudulent or unfair act on the part of the Entrant or other person assisting the Entrant to win any of the prizes.

V. Personal data processing

- In accordance with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation No. 2016/679, the Entrant grants the Organiser and the Co-organiser as the joint personal data controllers their express approval with the processing of their personal data to the extent of first name, surname, telephone number, e-mail address, tickets and credits in Slevomat.cz account, conversion of points within the cafeteria system, information about the permitted categories, card transaction history, employer's name, employer's address and, in the case of the winner, their photograph and postal address ("Personal Data"), which will be processed for the purpose of running and evaluating the Competition and the subsequent prize giving during the Competition Period and six months after its ending. After the expiry of such record keeping period, the Organiser may process personal data only if the keeping thereof for a longer period of time is justified by law or by legitimate interests of the Organiser, including but not limited to the protection of legal title. The winners' personal data shall be kept for the reasons of organisation of the Competition for a period of three years.

- By entering the Competition, the Entrant gives their approval for the Organiser and Co-organiser to use their photograph together with the prize in the event of winning free of charge in the media (including the Internet), in promotional and advertising material connected with the Competition and in connection with promoting their products and services for a period of three years from the ending of the Competition. The Organiser shall contact the winner and arrange the photo session and delivery of the photograph on an individual basis.
- In connection with personal data processing, the Entrant has, in particular, the right to information and access to personal data, the right to correction or deletion of personal data, restriction of its processing, etc. under the above legal regulations.

VI. Final provisions

- By participating in the Competition, each Entrant agrees with its Rules and undertakes to observe such Rules unconditionally.
- Entrants have no legal right to receive the Competition prize. Neither prizes nor the participation in the Competition may be claimed legally.
- The Entrant undertakes to respect the laws of the Czech Republic and the Organiser's legitimate interests and to refrain from acting in discord with good morals in connection with the Competition.
- Persons ineligible for participation in the Competition or acting contrary to the Competition Rules or good morals will not be admitted to the Competition or will be excluded from it. If such a person complies with certain requirements for winning a prize, e.g. as a result of giving untrue information, the person is not a winner and has no right to a prize. Any breach or circumvention of these Rules by an entrant or any attempt at misusing the Rules constitutes the reason for an immediate exclusion from the Competition. In such an event, the prize is forfeited to the benefit of the Organiser and Co-organiser of the Competition.

e. The Organiser in cooperation with the Co-organiser reserves the right of final decision in all matters related to this Competition, including any suspension, postponement or cancellation thereof or a change in the Rules thereof. The Organiser in cooperation with the Co-organiser is authorised to change the Rules of the Competition at any time during its course or after its ending, including the procedures for determining the winners and types of prizes and cancelling the Competition. If the Rules of the Competition change, Entrants will be informed about the change at www.edenred.cz or through their cafeteria.

f. The right of the Organiser and Co-organiser to intervene in the Competition includes the right to withhold a prize from a winner if they suspect that an Entrant breached or circumvented or attempted to breach or circumvent the Rules of the Competition. In such a case, the Organiser and Co-organiser have the right to exclude the Entrant from the Competition without the right to any compensation. The final decision on disputed matters is always up to the Organisers.
